Dear Dot,
 I want to wish you
 the best of success in everything you wish to do. Keep a clear head and don't let the fellows drive you wild because they will. In closing a few words of advice.
 Study your lesson part of the time and the boys
 all of the time.

the blue and gold

*Our Libbey colors blue and gold,
Are emblems that we love;
They fill our hearts with joy and pride,
As they proudly wave above.
The blue ever like the sky so fair,
The gold like the sun shining bright,
Will lead us on to victory,
In paths of truth and right.*

—Mrs. Della Williams Paine

Edward Drummond Libbey High School is more than the fine building on Western Avenue in Toledo, Ohio. It is its leaders, students, and traditions interacting. It is the silent moment that instills peace and courage for the day and years ahead; the big dance we anticipate for weeks (everyone will be there); the friendly greeting we exchange in the hall with a classmate, or a teacher, or Mr. Rusie; the non-denominational services we reverently attend; the camaraderie of the Rhythm Roundup and our class plays; the loyalty we give our teams in victory or defeat; the blue of the sky and the sun shining on the towers when we enter in the morning; the special feeling within when we sing our song; the joy and pride we take in the achievements of any one of us; the learning and the sharing—the Blue and Gold.

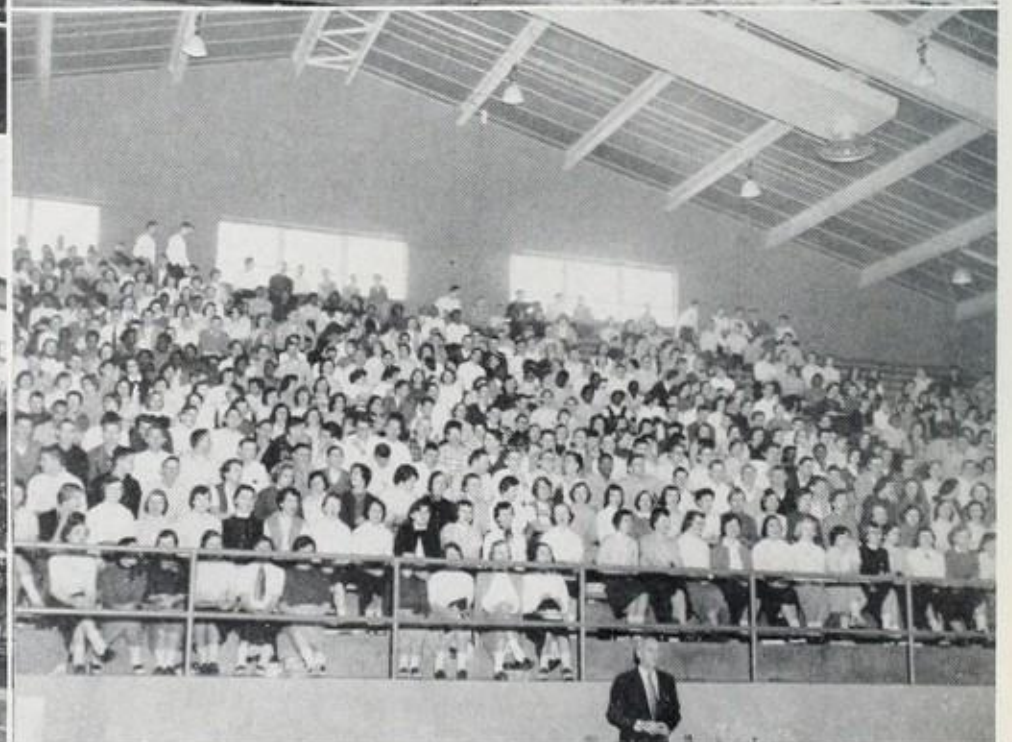

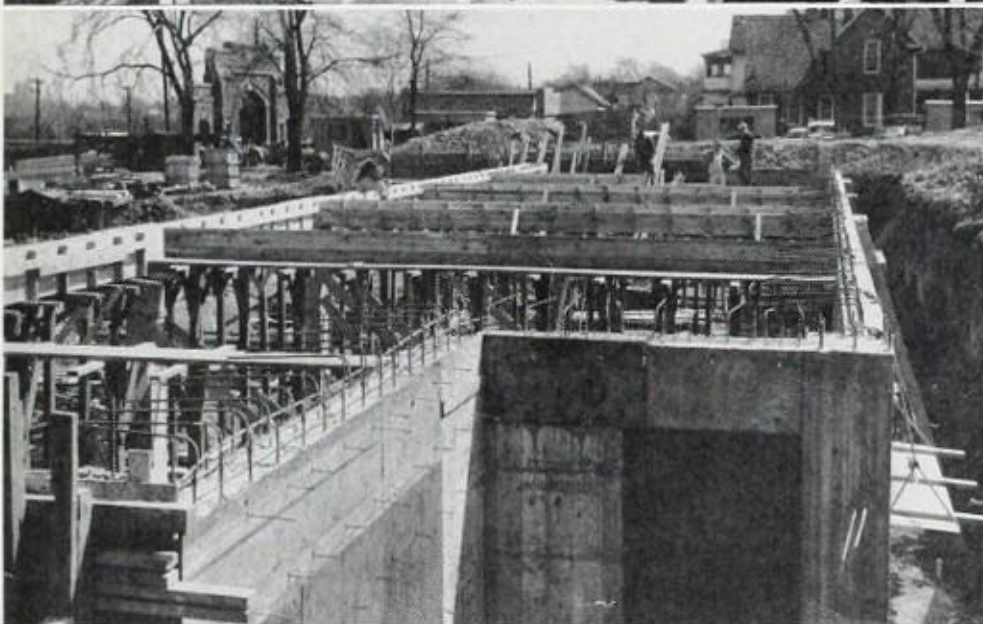

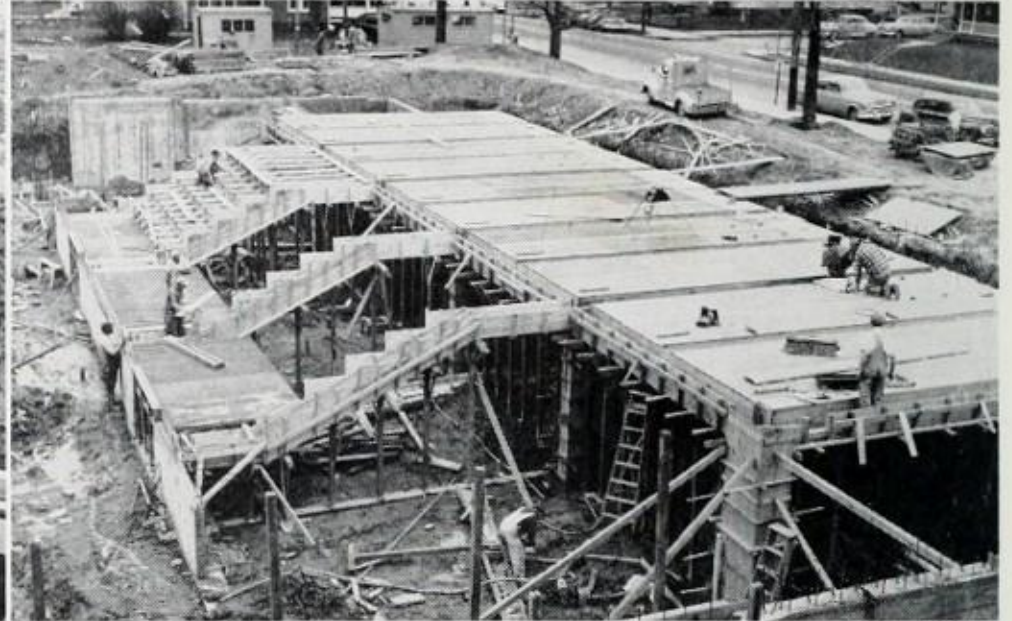

We owe a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Della Williams Paine, sister of Libbey's first principal, Harold E. Williams; for echoing in the heart of every Libbeyite is the song which she composed — "The Blue and Gold." Since her song is Libbey, we have taken it as the theme of the 1955 Edelian.

The caliber of a school and its students is largely determined by its leaders. We of Libbey have been fortunate in having leaders of superior ability who have served us well over a long period. They have set the pattern. Libbey is the school of which we are proud, because they have so carefully nurtured its best traditions—merging the best of the present with the best of the past. We come and go. They remain, molding our minds and hearts as we appear successively. It is their wisdom and understanding which develops in us the strength to cope with the problems of the adult world. If we become leaders, it is because they have been leaders. The needed encouragement and the fine example have come from them. For the inspirational guidance they have given us in our time at Libbey, we who are the seniors of 1955 wish to express our gratitude.

Initiating the policies which will guide all Toledo schools is the tremendous responsibility of Superintendent E. L. Bowsher. He must decide how best to resolve the many problems resulting from the increasing need for education within Toledo. We of Libbey derived two outstanding benefits from his decisions this year—reorganization of our administrative forces and our fine new field house. In thus expanding our school facilities, he has again demonstrated the foresightedness of his leadership.

Our principal, Loy W. Rusie, is a part of Libbey that we will never forget; for it is from his geniality that the friendly spirit of Libbey stems. Though his administrative duties are many, he is never too busy to share in our aspirations or problems. His counsel is ever ready to meet our young needs. For the wisdom and kindness of his leadership during our four years at Libbey, we seniors of 1955 fondly thank him.

dedication

It is leaders like Miss Florence Lutton who justify spelling with capitals such attributes as Versatility, Loyalty, and Worth. We are familiar with her understanding of current events, but few of us know that her hobby is an eighty-acre farm near Delta, Ohio. She has traveled, too—from Delta west to the Rose Bowl, from Toledo east to the Bridge of Sighs. Preparation for her life work has taken her from the public schools of Delta to Ohio Northern University, Ypsilanti Teachers College, Ohio State University, the University of Wisconsin, and the University of Toledo where she received her M.A. But for the past thirty years, her life has centered around Libbey High School. "Yeah! Libbey!" Miss Lutton cheered, as she flourished the first season football ticket purchased by a teacher to support the stadium drive. Well or ill, she has been at her post regularly, exerting incalculable influence for good upon incalculable numbers of young people. Who can say that such an influence ends or that such a teacher ever retires? It is with respect and affection that we of the Senior Class of 1955 dedicate this volume of the Edelian to a leader who can never retire—Miss Florence Lutton.

 and Counseling

 University of Michigan, M.A.

True leadership is a matter of progressing as well as retaining the best of what is passing. In 1955 there was a realignment of administrative responsibilities at Libbey. Mr. Osgood and Miss Kanney, formerly deans, were appointed assistant principals in charge of counseling. Mr. Osgood, in addition, became responsible for the general administration of the school. Mr. Harding, former head of the Mathematics Department, resigned these duties to become assistant principal in charge of instruction. Mr. Martin became assistant principal in charge of activities. We congratulate our administrators on the splendid work they are doing in their new positions. We know that under their direction, Libbey will continue to be the school of which we are proud.

they fill our hearts

We who thronged the halls and classrooms of Libbey in 1955 had much to accomplish before the accolade of commencement. When we ourselves were not busy achieving, we were taking joy and pride in the achievements of others who were Libbey, too. Those of us who were freshmen watched so that we might manage Libbey affairs well when our turn came; for out of us would emerge the Senior Class of 1958. We who were sophomores were sure of ourselves and of our school. Awe was as far away as our freshman year. We who were juniors were exhilarated by class activities which distinguished us as upperclassmen—we had arrived. Those of us who were seniors found fulfillment in assuming the responsibilities of school leadership. After four years of vying and sharing, we felt very close to our classmates. We did not worry that we would forget them—or be forgotten—after graduation. For though our lives were now to follow divergent paths which properly might not merge again, we knew that the heart has its own way of remembering. And they fill our hearts.

seniors

Events which made our senior year memorable were the Cowboy Roundup, the senior play, "Father was a Housewife," the Junior-Senior Prom, the senior trip to Washington and New York, the senior banquet, Baccalaureate, and the culmination of our four years—Commencement. Responsible for organizing these many senior activities were the class officers: president, Larry McCormack; vice president, Ann Ramseur; first and second semester recording secretary-treasurers, Nancy Hunt and Rosemary Baranek; and sergeant-at-arms, Tony Bachman. Senior members of Student Council who assisted in planning our final year were Dave Gillmore, Esther Fleming, Al Jamison, and Jean Kerns. Our special thanks go to Miss Grace Henderson, adviser to Student Council and the senior class, who gave so unstintingly of her time that we might take happy memories with us.

Student Council Representatives:
Tom A. Smith, Shirley Falk, Judy Niehous, and Bob Fearnside.

Junior Class Officers: Bob Fearnside, sgt.-at-arms; Carol Van Karsen, secy.-treas.; Pati Penn, vice pres.; and Jim Rogers, pres.

The junior play, "Men Are Like Streetcars," the Junior-Senior Prom, and our junior rings were the three class distinctions of which we juniors were very proud. Representing us were president, Jim Rogers; vice president, Pati Penn; secretary-treasurer, Carol Van Karsen; sergeant-at-arms, Bob Fearnside; and junior members of Student Council, Judy Niehous, Shirley Falk, Bob Fearnside, and Tom Smith. Miss Jean Gilbert, Junior Class Adviser, contributed the guidance necessary to make our year a success.

emblems that we love

Life at Libbey is not all study. There are emblems that we love—the blue and gold—figuratively, if not literally, coloring a bevy of activities which command our loyalties. A duly elected few represent us all as members of our Student Council governing body—a group that consistently strives to make Libbey a strong school community. A select few outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and service attain the highest honor Libbey can bestow—membership in the National Honor Society. All of us enjoy the many schoolwide affairs sponsored by the various Libbey organizations, and many of us, the challenge and fun of sponsoring them. For whatever our interests (and they are diversified), there are emblems that we love through which we may serve and grow.

national honor

The purpose of the National Honor Society is ever to hold erect the flaming light of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light, to keep burning in our school a high ambition, to approach the highest ideals of life and to recognize its greatest values, and to serve loyally, faithfully, and unselfishly. Guiding the society in holding to its purpose this year were Miss Jean Gilbert, adviser; Walter Brown, president; Nancy Ohler, vice president; Carol Nickelsen, secretary; and Larry McCormack, treasurer. Sixty-six juniors and seniors, elected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, were inducted into the group in March. In order to promote scholarship among underclassmen, the Society also awarded certificates to the top three per cent of the freshman class and honor pins to the top four per cent of the sophomore class at the Induction. Social events of the year, directed by Ann Ramseur, included a Halloween Masquerade Party at the home of Carole Marlowe, a spring roast to which the Maumee National Honor was invited, a faculty tea in November arranged by Nancy Walker and Jackie Guhl, and an Induction Party planned by Eleanor Bade, Dave Gillmore, Carolyn Hoerig, and Fred Starnier. Bob Price, activities chairman, supervised the arrangements for two auditorium programs which presented Robert Wagner, movie star, and Clark Olsen, exchange student to Russia now studying at Oberlin. The proceeds from these programs furnished the money for scholarships awarded by the society. Carol Born, scholarship chairman, sent a letter inquiring about available scholarships to every Ohio college and a number of out-of-state colleges. The Libbey Chapter was also instrumental in developing the new Area National Honor Society.

Producing a 1955 Edelian which would truly reflect Libbey 1955 was the chief concern of Edelian editors and advisers this year. There were various crises, but all were forgotten as successive deadlines were met. In the flurry of planning layouts, taking pictures, selling advertisements, securing patrons, writing copy, checking galleys, and selling Edelians, the staff was steadied by advisers, Principal Loy W. Rusie, Business Director, Mr. Charles Martin, and Mrs. Jane Roberts. Staff members also profited from attending the Ohio University Journalism Workshop in Athens and the annual meeting of the Journalism Association of Ohio Schools in Columbus. Editors for the year were Esther Fleming and Fred Starner, co-editors; pictorial editor, Dave Gillmore; advertising editor, Warren Huff; copy editors, Grace Borton and Nancy Ohler; layout editors, Barbara Kakela and Carol Nickelsen; faculty editors, Jeriann Armbrust, Sharon Franklin, and Tam Townsend; senior editors, Lysbet Hoffman, Frances Mucci, and Brent Lewis; class editors, Nancy Walker and Joanne Westrup; club editors, Sherry Bellair and Carolyn Hoerig; and athletic editors, Eugene Hoodlet, Tom Leppert, and Lyn Oberdier. Nancy Miller and Shirley Wilson were circulation managers.

The staff and advisers of the Crystal have performed their usual vital service for Libbey in recording and interpreting all aspects of school life. This fall the group decided to streamline the paper. The success of this modernization was proved by the first place ratings which the paper received from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the National Scholastic Press Association. Journalism conventions attended by staff members included the Ohio University Journalism Workshop in Athens, the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference in New York, the annual meeting of the Journalism Association of Ohio Schools in Columbus, and the Northwestern Ohio District Journalism Association Conference in Bowling Green. On the staff were Carol Born and Don Robb, co-editors; Mary Jo Aufderheide, Mary Sue Long, and Pat Mooneyham, news staff; Pati Penn and Carol Van Karsen, feature staff; Hal Wagner, Bob Price, and Carol Mueller, sports staff; Linda von Klinger, typing editor; and Stanley Kanarowski, business manager. Miss Florence Gerdes and Mrs. Jo Ann Pierce served as co-advisers. Advisers and staff are to be congratulated on their topflight publication.

The main objective of the Student Council is service to Libbey through the promotion of good citizenship. Among the projects which the council supervised this year were the Community Chest Drive, the Area Sportsmanship Contest, the Magazine Drive, the Thanksgiving Day Queen Campaign and Election, and the Freshman Student Council Elections. Council members also headed the Morning Hall Patrol and helped with the Eighth-Grade Visitation. But it was not "all work and no play" for our active Student Council. Council opened the Libbey social season by sponsoring a football dance following the Libbey-Central Game, and the success of the Area Student Council Dance was due in large part to the efforts of Libbey's Tom Smith who was chairman of the Queen Contest held in conjunction with the dance. Other affairs enjoyed by Council were its annual spring roast and a Magazine Drive Banquet. Capably leading the group were Dave Gillmore, president; Bob Fearnside, vice president; Tom Smith, secretary-treasurer; Al Jamison, sergeant-at-arms; Jean Kerns, clerk of courts; and Miss Grace Henderson, adviser.

the periclean literary society

The Periclean Literary Society again was justified in having as its motto, "Second to None"; for the Peries sparked many activities around Libbey this year. In November, they displayed their talents by presenting a pep rally for the DeVilbiss-Libbey Thanksgiving Day Game. Preceding the Tri-Lit Dance at the South Side Y, they enjoyed a Senior Banquet at the Hillcrest Hotel. To earn money, they sold shakers, baked goods, and candy. They also collected the traditional Christmas toys for underprivileged children and contributed to the Red Cross. Their initiation tea was given at the home of their adviser, Mrs. Harriett Pheatt, with Miss Aileen Eberth as guest. Officers for the year were Jean Kerns, president; Esther Fleming, vice president; Nancy Ohler, recording secretary; Jeriann Armbrust, treasurer; Barbara Bodi, corresponding secretary; Ann Cameron, censor; and Mary Sue Long, chaplain.

philalethean literary society

In 1955 the Philalethean Literary Society once more observed its purpose of promoting scholarship, leadership and fellowship. The many social events which the Phils organized during the year included the Waite Pep Rally, a Christmas party, a basketball dance in January following the DeVilbiss-Libbey Game, a Mother and Daughter Tea in March, the "Krazy Kapers," a dance on April Fool's Day, and the annual banquet in May. Monthly literary meetings, in which all Phils participated, centered about various topics. In November, the interest was "Famous Women"; in December, "Christmas in Other Lands"; in March, "Authors and Poets"; in April, "Famous Men"; and in May, "Famous Mothers." Helpfully guiding the group were Miss Mary Kirk, adviser; Mary Jo Aufderheide, president; Darrilyn Schluter, vice president; Robertine Bolander, recording secretary; Sherry Bellair, corresponding secretary; Barbara Kakela, treasurer; Marilee Abel, chaplain; Margie Kravetsky, senior censor; Judy Niehous, junior censor; and Lysbet Hoffman, sergeant-at-arms.

zetalethean literary society

The enthusiastic Zets began their program for the year with a pep rally for the first Central Game. Their social calendar included a Mother and Daughter Tea in April and a colorful banquet in May before the second annual Tri-lit Dance. Literary meetings which developed the theme, "Around the World with the Zets," successfully fulfilled the motto of the Zetalethean Society, "Nihil sine labore." Presiding were officers: Ruth Dinkins, president; Virginia Meinardi, vice president; Judy Hawley, treasurer; Tam Townsend, recording secretary; Carol Born, corresponding secretary; Grace Borton, chaplain; Carole Marlowe, sergeant-at-arms; Pati Penn, censor; and Carol Cochran, historian. Miss Grace DeLisle, Mrs. Eleanore Dzialok, and Miss Aileen Eberth advised the group.

The annual spring roast held in conjunction with the Q.D.'s concluded another productive year for the Forum Literary Society. In observance of its purpose—to benefit Libbey by promoting citizenship, leadership, and service—the Forum gave gift baskets of food to needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas time and also awarded a seventy-five dollar scholarship. Reviving an old tradition, underclassmen proudly wore white Forum sweaters with the blue Forum emblem. A dance held on January 8, at the South Side Y.M.C.A. was the outstanding social occasion of the year. Terry Mallett, Jerry Mix, Dennis Walterreit, and Harold Hecklinger arranged this gala affair. Responsibility for the success of the Forum program was shared by: Mr. William Wirick, adviser; Al Jamison, president; Larry McCormack, vice president; Fred Starner, secretary; Terry Mallett, treasurer; and Robert Houck, sergeant-at-arms.

quill and dagger

The Quill and Dagger Literary Society again proved to be one of the more active clubs around Libbey. Highlight of the group's busy social season was the annual Q.D. Shindig, which was held in the new South Toledo Y.M.C.A. and featured a Halloween motif. December found the Q.D.'s enjoying a rather chilly hayride to Side Cut Park. The Forum merged with the orange-and-black sweated Q.D. crew at a May beach party at Warren Huff's cottage on Lake Erie. A banquet honoring the senior members was also on the May agenda, as was the annual roast at Farnsworth Park. In the way of service projects, the club presented a Christmas basket to a needy Toledo family and sponsored a tag sale for the Central football game. The society also participated in the football queen election by nominating and campaigning for the eventual winner, Jeriann Armbrust. Arranging Q.D. activities were Mr. George Miley, adviser; Dave Gillmore, president; Wayne Oestreich, vice president; Ron Onnenga, secretary; Tom Szymanski, treasurer; Jack Frayer, sergeant-at-arms; and Art Funka, chaplain.

senior y-teens

The purpose of the Senior Y-Teens of Libbey is to promote service to the school in keeping with the principles of the Y. W. C. A. An important activity of the Senior Y-Teens in line with this objective was the sponsoring of the Lenten Services in collaboration with the Senior Hi-Y. On the social agenda of the Senior Y-Teens were a football banquet with the Athletic Association in October and a dinner at First English Lutheran Church in November. The sale of mums for the Thanksgiving Day Game and a candy sale were the money-making projects for the year. Aiding the Senior Y-Teens in carrying out their full program were Miss Ruth Allen, adviser; Jacquie Guhl, president; Nancy Walker, vice president; Carolyn Hoerig, secretary; Barbara Sprunk, treasurer; LaDonna Shanteau, devotional chairman; and Mary Ann Kramer, service chairman.

junior y-teens

"To grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities; and to grow in the knowledge and love of God" is the purpose of the Junior Y-Teens. Activities which furthered this purpose were a splash party at the Central Y. W. C. A. in October, the Annual Y-Teens Banquet in November, "Snowflake Fantasy," a dance at the South Side Y in December, and the presentation of a Christmas basket to a needy Toledo family. Directing the active group were Mrs. Jo Ann Pierce, adviser; Judy Niehous, president; Judy Boone, vice president; Doris Altenbaugh, secretary; Sue Baumgartner, treasurer; Linda Green, chaplain; Shirlee Falk and Norma Raitz, representatives; and Judy Van Koughnet, reporter.

sophomore y-teens

Uniting sophomore girls for social and service reasons is the aim of the Libbey Sophomore Y-Teens. To accomplish this goal a very comprehensive program was undertaken this year. Y-Teens collected money for the City of Hope, made toys for an orphanage, played an active part in the Central Y's Centennial Celebration, participated in the City Y Dance on February 12, and helped with the Fortune Telling Booth at the City Y Carnival. Among the inviting social events on the club's schedule were the Installation Banquet at First English Lutheran Church in November, a splash party at the Central Y. W. C. A. in October, a Christmas Party in December, and the cutting of the Centennial Cake in January. In charge of the lively Sophomore Y-Teens were Miss Shirley Haney and Miss Mary Ann Louy, advisers; Judy Roush, president; Marilyn Moyer, vice president; Joyce Ervin, secretary; Elaine Leon, treasurer; Elaine Ramseur, worship; Judy Harris, sergeant-at-arms; Sarah Smith, publicity chairman; Judy Johnson and Elaine Carter, Hi-Y-Teens representatives; and Judy Roush and Marilyn Moyer, inter-club council representatives.

senior, junior, and sophomore hi-y

The Senior, Junior, and Sophomore Hi-Y Clubs combined for many programs and activities this year. Guiding the three clubs was their joint purpose of creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the home, school, and community the high standards of Christian character. Social events sponsored by the groups were the "Snow Ball," a dance held December 29 at the South Side Y. M. C. A., monthly swims at the Central Y. M. C. A., and weekly basketball games. Speakers for the year were Al Wilson, Matt Kloeb, Bill Kuntz, and Bernard von Nickoi. The program of the Junior Hi-Y further included inducting the Anthony Wayne Hi-Y Club, helping with B.I.E. day at Libbey, and distributing materials for the Community Chest. Representing the seniors were Art Funka, president; Fred Starner, vice president; John Zimmerman, secretary; Ken Eaton, treasurer; Eddie Klinglesmith, chaplain; Tony Bachman, sergeant-at-arms; and Mr. Needles, adviser. Junior leaders were Terry MacDonald, president; Tom A. f. n. a. — f. t. a.

The objective of the Libbey Chapter of the Future Nurses of America is to acquaint interested girls with nursing as a career. In accordance with this purpose, the group visited the Toledo Health Department and several Toledo hospitals. To finance the scholarships which it gives annually to worthy girls who choose the nursing profession, the F. N. A. sold apples and Christmas cards. A tea in May concluded the year's work. Miss Mary Kelso and Mrs. Beatrice Baird advised the organization and its officers: Jean Heiden, president; Sharon Ewearitt, vice president; Barbara Bogart, secretary; Mary Ellen Watts, treasurer; and Carolyn Christen and Nancy Stahl, reporters.

"To encourage young people to become teachers" is the motto of the Future Teachers of America. A full agenda included a membership drive early in the year followed by induction of new members, a tea for the teachers in April, attendance at the city-wide F. T. A. meeting, ushering for B. I. E. Day, and selling Libbey bookcovers to earn money for the F. T. A. scholarship. For diversion the group scheduled a Christmas party in the teachers' cafeteria and a banquet and induction of new officers in May. Activities were capably directed by Miss Irene Foster and Mrs. Louise Meffley, advisers; Mary Ann Kramer, president; Karen Clark, vice president; Carol Mead, secretary; Elaine Leon, treasurer; Judy Niehaus, chaplain; Mary Manz, historian; Carol Myers, song leader; and Pat Sullivan, librarian.

This year the Debate Club became a worthy addition to the roll of organizations at Libbey. Having a common interest in debate and prompted by an opportunity to form, the ten members asked Mr. R. C. Baker to be their adviser and selected the following officers: Karen Clark and Fred Starner, co-chairmen; Pati Penn, secretary; Don Fogelsanger, treasurer; and Don Robb, program chairman. Regular sessions were held every Tuesday before school, and an impromptu debate was scheduled once a month. Topics debated were such current world, national, and local problems as "Recognition of Red China by the U.N.," "The Eighteen-Year-Old Vote," "The Bricker Amendment," "Going Steady," and a "New Baseball Stadium for Toledo."

1955 was a busy year for members of the Libbey Junior Red Cross. The purpose of the organization—to help humanity locally, nationally, and internationally—was fully realized with the aid of capable adviser, Miss Virginia C. May, and officers: Walter T. Brown, president; Robert Price, vice president; and Nancy Czolgosz, secretary-treasurer. Members sent a hundred gift boxes to needy children overseas and hundreds of holiday tray favors to local institutions on Christmas, Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, and Easter. They also collected hundreds of pieces of beautiful costume jewelry for Toledo State Hospital patients, decorated the Mess Hall for the Coast Guard at Christmas, and served as ushers and color bearers at the annual adult membership meeting at the Peristyle. Some of the many services performed by the Red Cross were shown on television February 28, when the extra-curricular activities of the Toledo high schools were portrayed.

united nations — libbey leaders

The Libbey United Nations Club has as its purpose acquainting students of Libbey with the work of the United Nations and developing interest in world affairs. This year the group participated in the annual Mock General Assembly at the University of Toledo and worked in co-ordination with representatives from other area schools in attending meetings of the Toledo Council on World Affairs. Capably supervising activities were Miss Grace Irwin and Mr. R. C. Baker, advisers; Don Robb, president; Stanley Kanarowski, secretary; Constance Chambers, treasurer; and Roger Kronmann, chaplain.

Members of the Libbey Leaders Club are afforded an opportunity to develop skills in leadership and additional skills in games and sports not possible in regular physical education classes. Every Monday afternoon the Libbey Leaders gather in the gym to play volley ball and basketball and to learn to assist, referee, and manage the regular classes during the school day. On their calendar this term were a play-day at Woodward High School in January and a district play-day at Bowling Green. Club activities were planned by committees which were appointed throughout the year under the direction of Miss Jane Myers, faculty adviser.

classical honor — junior classical league

The Classical Honor Society, which is advised by Mrs. Pauline Burton, bestows honor on those students who have done outstanding work in the study of Latin. Members of this honorary must maintain an "A" or "B" average in Latin. Tom A. Smith had the distinction of serving as president this year.

The purpose of the Junior Classical League is to hand on the torch of classical civilization in the modern world. The league and the Classical Honor Society observe the same motto, "Scientia Arx Saeculorum," "Knowledge, the Citadel of the Ages," and also collaborate on work and social programs. The first study program was an educational trip to Rosary Cathedral where members studied the architecture and the art in the cathedral. Later in the year Mrs. Pauline Burton gave a lecture accompanied by slides on the architecture of Greece, Rome, and Pompeii. In the spring a group of selected students took a trip to the University of Michigan where they were taken on a guided tour through the university. Several of the students also attended the state convention of the Junior Classical League. Social events of the year included the fall picnic at Walbridge Park in September and a post-holiday party in January, with Marilyn Matzinger, chairman. The officers for the year were Roger Kronmann, president; Marilyn Moyer, vice president; and Tom Smith, secretary-treasurer. The advisers of the Junior Classical League are Mrs. Pauline Burton and Miss Aileen Eberth.

biology club

With its annual banquet in May, the Biology Club brought to a close another profitable year of service and activities. A visit to the Toledo Zoo and a roast in early fall were followed later in the year by the induction of new members, the annual Christmas Party, and preparation of a Christmas basket. Club programs featured a film on medical technology presented by two medical technicians and a talk on birds by Charles Prestin of the Naturalist Society. Instrumental in achieving the purpose of the club, "to arouse interest in biology and to create social events for those interested in biology," were Miss Lydia Fiedler and Miss Lasetta Pickard, advisers; Mary Kesling, president; Erma Lee Simmons, secretary; and Dennis Griffith, treasurer.

f. b. l. a.

One of the active organizations in Libbey High School is the Future Business Leaders of America Club. It strives constantly to promote activities among the students of the Business Department and to serve the school. That its members observe the club motto, "Learn to Serve, and Serve to Learn," is indicated by the many projects they completed during the year. Money-making ventures included the sale of such diverse articles as savings stamps, pens, Gregg Shorthand Dictionaries, copies of Twenty Thousand Words, candy, potato chips, and salt and pepper shakers. Stimulating guest speakers highlighted club meetings. Miss Gertrude Payne, a former Libbey teacher, showed the members of the club slides that she took on her trip out West. dramatics club

The Dramatics Club endeavors to promote honor for Thespians. This year the club sponsored the Senior Play, "Father Was a Housewife," on December 9, and the Junior Play, "Men Are Like Streetcars," on March 16. Darrilyn Schluter and Fred Starner served as co-chairmen for a splash party at the Catholic Club in April. choir

In 1955 the Libbey Choir under the direction of Harold McClure successfully filled many singing engagements. At Christmas time the choir sang for the Women's Educational Club and over W.T.D.S. In February the group participated in the annual choir festival of the Toledo high schools which was presented at the Peristyle. The Libbey organization also sang at Trinity Church and the State Hospital in March, enriched our non-denominational Lenten services, and gave a concert for the school in May. band

The Libbey Band has added spirit and color to football games for many years. For those who support the teams, the band with its precision marching and musical quality is an essential part of an athletic contest. Traveling to the Springfield football game with the student body and marching in the Toledo Memorial Day Parade were important band activities this year. The band also performed superbly at pep rallies and put on its annual concert. Mr. Harold McClure, conductor, was assisted by the following officers: Charles Hopkins, president; William Selvey, vice president; Jeriann Armbrust, recording secretary, Letitia Nowakowski, corresponding secretary; Ronnie Kilell, treasurer; and Tony Bachman, sergeant-at-arms. A roast held in the spring was the band's main social event. Bill Selvey, a sophomore, was chosen as the new drum major this year.

Certainly a valuable asset to the extra-curricular functions of Libbey are the activities workers under the direction of Mr. Charles Martin. These students ably assist Mr. Martin in selling activities tickets and Edelian orders. One of the biggest jobs they undertake is the distribution of the yearbook, and they do this task systematically and efficiently. Another important service performed by these aides is the selling of the Crystal once a month. Senior advisers in 1955 were Nancy Miller and Shirley Wilson; stage activities workers, Tom Szymanski, Ron Onnenga, and Art Funka; assistants, Sally Kuebbeler, Norma Raitz, Marcia Nehring, and Pat Fels.

Whether on the gridiron, basketball court, or other field of athletic endeavor, Libbey athletes are noted for being worthy contenders. Win or lose, they go on to victory—to the victory of playing their hearts out and displaying good sportsmanship. We in the crowd share in the victory. We are always there cheering our hearts out—striving to be fair-minded fans. This year we knew heartbursting jubilation when Coach Al Jeffery and his cagers came out on top in the city, sectional, and district basketball tournaments. Our joy and pride was as much in the cleanness of the victory as in the winning. Even after the regional defeat, we felt victorious. For we were convinced that win or lose, Libbey teams would always fight on to victory in paths of truth and right.

A group of talented, hard working men have consistently developed Libbey athletes of whom we can be proud. After many years of service to Libbey, three of these men—Varsity Football Coaches Mr. Harding and Mr. Robinson and team physician Dr. Carbin—have decided to retire. Henceforth, Coach Harding will devote full time to his duties as assistant principal in charge of instruction, and Coach Robinson will act exclusively as Athletic Manager. We congratulate these men on the large part they have played in advancing Libbey athletics. Another Libbey coach deserving of plaudits is Varsity Basketball Coach Al Jeffery. His champions advanced triumphantly through the city, sectional, and district tournaments with twenty-two wins. Producing a stellar basketball team was only part of Coach Jeffery's job, however. He also coached football and baseball. The coaches in charge of building the varsity stars of tomorrow again spent many hours on the practice field. Leo Campey was Reserve Basketball Coach; Don Harris, Assistant Football Coach; George Miley, Assistant Football, Freshman Basketball, and Freshman Track Coach; Bill Wirick, Assistant Football and Varsity Track Coach; and Orville Henrion, Graduate Manager.

Ken Eaton was voted most valuable football substitute.

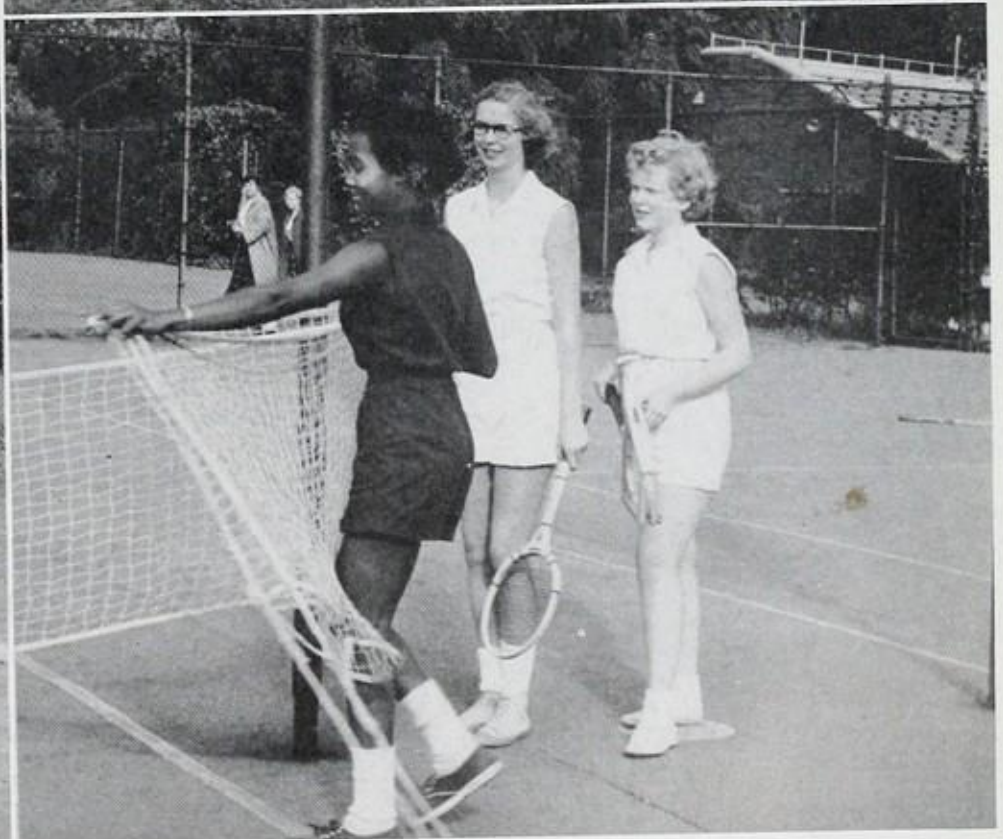

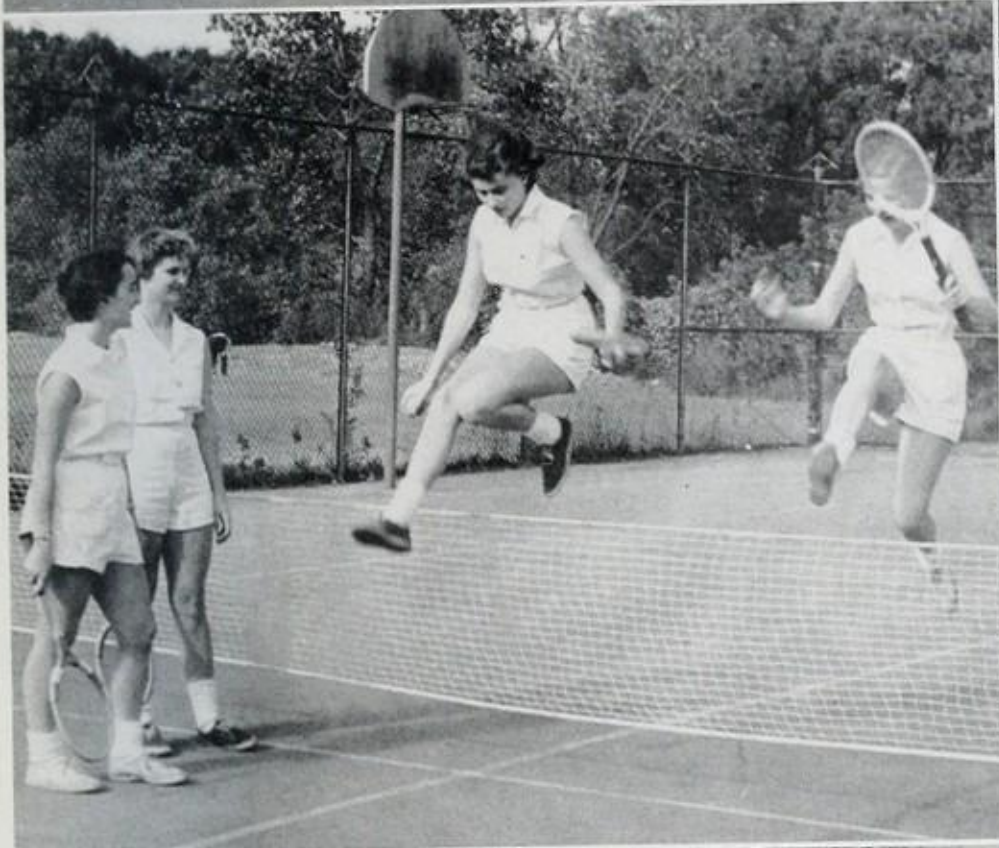

Majorettes — Darlene Davidter, Jeri Armbrust, Nancy Ohler, Marilyn Leibius, Jackie Endsley, Letitia Nowakowski, Carol Tucholski, Barb Bruggeman — support the Cowboys in appropriate costume.

Cheerleaders make a throne for our championship basketball coach.

Watch that left!
Bob's in the lead!
A fast soccer game.
How are things up-side-down?

That's a homer!
Put it up and over!
Come on! Basket that ball!
Stretch, Jeff!

Volleyball in good form.
The winners!
Watch the birdie!
You're out!

Target practice.
What? No bull's-eyes?
That "nets" the period.

uth and right

When buffeted by the winds of life, we will return to the serenity of the silent moment, to the light streaming through a Christmas window in Senior Study—to the shelter of the Blue and Gold—and be led on to victory in paths of truth and right.

Dear Dot,

It has been fun having you in my gym and English classes.
I guess all the kids who's classes you were in will miss you because you were the only source of fun we had. Especially when it comes to reading poetry. Best of luck in your future years at Libby

Dear Freshman
don't take that to sound
small or out of place.
But truly you are a wonderful girl and I enjoy just looking at you even though I didn't have the courage to call you
"Honey". But next year you will be a Soph. and then maybe you can have the nerve to say good
